

Eagle Scout Letter of Reference

An Eagle Scout candidate must demonstrate that they live by the principles of the Scout Oath and Law in their daily life. In this regard, the candidate has indicated that you know them personally and that you would be willing to provide a letter of reference on their behalf. On the reverse side of this letter there are additional instructions and a copy of the Scout Oath and Law, for your reference, in preparing this letter. Please note that the contents of the letter will NOT be shown to or discussed with the candidate, nor with anyone not a member of the Eagle Scout Board of Review. Please read the "Instructions to Letter of Reference Writer", on the back of this form.

Instructions to Scout: Everyone you listed on your Eagle application in requirement #2 should write a letter of reference. You should give this form to the people listed in requirement #2 in an unsealed envelope with your name and the words "Eagle Scout Letter of Reference" on the front of the envelope. These letters are confidential and will be returned to you, but you are NOT to open the envelope. Remember: A Scout is.... They should be returned to you in a sealed and signed envelope. These are added to your Eagle Package that is sent to the council office for verification when all requirements on the Eagle Scout Rank Application are met. For information purpose only. Please read the instructions to the writer also.

Instructions to Letter of Reference Writer: This letter of reference should be based upon your personal interaction with the Eagle Scout candidate and should take into consideration your observance of how they exemplify the points listed below in the Scout Oath and the Scout Law. You may choose to use this form or write you own letter of reference, making sure all the information on this form is on your reference (candidate's name, your relationship, sign and date, etc.) If you need more space than is provided, you may attach additional pages. These letters are confidential between you and the members of the Board of Review. Please seal and sign the flap of the envelope and return it to the Eagle Candidate or their parents. If this is to be mailed, please insert this envelope in another envelope. Thank you for taking time to write this letter.

The Scout Oath:

On my Honor, I will do my best. To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

The Scout Law: (A Scout is....)

TRUSTWORTHY	A Scout tells the truth. They keep their promises. Honesty is a part of their code of conduct. People can always depend on them.
LOYAL	A Scout is true to their family, friends, Scout leaders, school, nation, and world community.
HELPFUL	A Scout is concerned about other people. They willingly volunteer to help others without expecting payment or reward.
FRIENDLY	A Scout is a friend to all. They seek to understand others. They respect those with ideas and customs that are different from their own.
COURTEOUS	A Scout is polite to everyone regardless of age or position. They know that good manners make it easier for people to get along together.
KIND	A Scout understands there is strength in being gentle. They treat others as they want to be treated. They do not harm or kill anything without reason.
OBEDIENT	A Scout follows the rules of their family school, and troop. They obey the laws of their community and country. If they think these rules and laws are unfair, they try to have them changed in an orderly manner rather than disobey them.
CHEERFUL	A Scout looks for the bright side of life. They cheerfully do tasks that come their way. They try to make others happy.
THRIFTY	A Scout works to pay their way and to help others. They save for the future. They protect and conserve natural resources. They carefully use time and property.
BRAVE	A Scout can face danger even if they are afraid. They have the courage to stand for what they think is right even if others laugh at them or threaten them.
CLEAN	A Scout keeps their body and mind fit and clean. They go around with those who believe in living by these same ideals. They help keep their home and community clean.
REVERENT	A Scout is reverent towards God. They are faithful in their religious duties. They respect the beliefs of others.
